

GOVERNOR BRADY IS SALT LAKE VISITOR

Idaho Executive Says Gem State Is Experiencing Remarkable Growth —Pleased With Salt Lake.

Gov. James H. Brady of Idaho is a visitor in this city and is a guest of the Knutsford hotel. When interviewed by a News reporter this morning he said: "I am in Salt Lake on business and to meet some of my friends from Chicago. Idaho is more prosperous today than she has ever been before, there are new people coming into the state every day, and they are composed of high class citizens. Most of them are able to buy their farms and pay cash for them, and have enough left over to put in the bank. We have opened up 1,000,000 acres of land within the past two years, and the development work is progressing very rapidly indeed. Both Boise and Pocatello are growing very rapidly and certainly a splendid development is going on at Pocatello. The government now has water on the 15,000 acres of land around Pocatello, and practically every acre of this will be under cultivation by next year. This will do more for the development of our state than anything that has been done in years. The Oregon Short Line is also preparing to spend hundreds of thousands of dollars in Pocatello, on its yards, shops, subways, viaducts and a splendid new passenger depot. This means much for this city as well as for the whole state, for Pocatello is the gateway to all southern Idaho."

When asked what he thought about Salt Lake he said: "I think the growth of Salt Lake is wonderful. Since I was here a little over a year ago, there have been many new buildings erected, and the new Utah Hotel would do credit to either New York or Chicago. On my road to the Commercial club from upper Main street, I noticed that many splendid new buildings had been erected. Your new Commercial club is the metropolitan one of its kind, between Denver and the coast. I think Salt Lake is destined to become one of the greatest cities on the Pacific slope."

C. H. Walker, who was arrested by Patrolman Eckstead for speeding, was fined $10 by Judge Whitaker this afternoon in police court. Mr. Walker was driving at a rate of from 15 to 20 miles per hour when taken into custody.

TO EDUCATE WOMEN.

Street Railway Management Hanges Picture Showing How to Alight.

The street railway management is hanging from the car ceilings, framed photographs of a woman getting off a streetcar the right way and the wrong way. In the former case, a neatly dressed woman passenger is alighting gracefully from the car step, grasping the handle bar with her left hand, facing the direction the car is going, and stepping off with the right foot first. In the second figure, she is facing the opposite direction, grasping the vestibule partition handle at the rear of the platform, and with her right foot on the platform, about to drop off into the street in a most ungainly style.

LEAVES FOR NORTHWEST.

Kenneth C. Kerr Will Assume Lucrative Position in Seattle.

Kenneth C. Kerr, formerly district passenger agent of the Salt Lake route, and later railroad editor of The Tribune, has accepted a position with the Alaska Steamship company of Seattle, and left for the northwestern metropolis last night. Mr. Kerr will have charge of the publicity end of the steamship company and several other corporations connected with it, and his duties will require him to visit New York and other large cities in the United States. He expects to return to Salt Lake in the spring, when Mrs. Kerr and the children will return with him to Seattle. Mr. Kerr has been president of the Salt Lake Press club for a year past, and is known as a first class "booster" and all round good fellow, and his friends will be pleased to learn of his good fortune in securing a lucrative position, though regretting that he will leave the city.

RECEIVER APPOINTED.

W. P. Millander Named to Take Charge of Banks Pattern Hat Co.

The application of the John V. Farwell company in the district court for a receiver for the Banks Pattern Hat company, which is located on West Temple street in the L. & A. Simon block, was acted upon today and W. P. Millander was appointed to act in that capacity. This action was taken to obtain settlement for $743.30, due to the Farwell company for stock in the store. Mr. Millander's bond was fixed at $50,000. The Banks Pattern Hat company claims that the assets are in excess of the liabilities and from present appearances it is evident that the management intends to take care of the accounts and continue in business.

FEMALE PRISONER SAYS SHE HAD A VISION

Pittsburg, Nov. 25.—Helene Boyle, serving a sentence of 25 years in the penitentiary of Pennsylvania for the kidnapping of "Little Billy" Whittie of Sharon, Pa., 18 months ago, was the pianist at the Thanksgiving entertainment given for the convicts. At the conclusion of the program she asked permission to sing a solo. It was granted and she sang "I Know My Redeemer Liveth," while many of the prisoners wept. Later she declared she had had a vision which convinced her that she would never pass another Thanksgiving day in the prison, that she would either be released or would die.

CAPT. CLEM CROWLEY MARRIES AFTER DEFEAT

Denver, Nov. 25.—"Clem" Crowley, captain of the Denver university football team, which was defeated yesterday by Colorado college in the decisive battle of the season, announced last night that it was the happiest day of his life.

This, however, was after he had been joined in marriage to Miss Flavia Eick Churchill, a University Park girl who had watched the game, and who did not intend to be married for quite a while.

Friends of the young people produced a marriage license at a dinner after the game, and the wedding took place at the bride's home.

AMERICAN ENGINEER KILLED IN MEXICO

New Orleans, Nov. 25.—James M. Reid of Houston, Miss., a civil engineer, was killed in Mexico City last Sunday by a policeman when sought to arrest him, according to Mexico City dispatches received here today.

In company with L. B. Loller of Memphis and some other friends, Reid had just started out on a renter's trip when Sebastian Vardel, a policeman, fired two bullets into his body.

When Reid fell, Vardel exclaimed: "I have killed the gringo, because the gringos burned a Mexican." Vardel was placed in jail. The shooting caused excitement in the American colony. The U. S. ambassador has instituted an investigation and will make demands for an indemnity from the Mexican government.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 25.—Habeas corpus proceedings for the release of Joseph Gardiner, under arrest here on request of the Seattle, Washington, authorities, who claim he is wanted there for forgery and leaving bad debts and checks to the amount of $54,700, were adjourned today until Nov. 29.

A deputy sheriff, bearing requisition papers, is on his way to Virginia to take the prisoner to Seattle. Gardiner's counsel today told the court that the governor of Virginia had agreed to hear the prisoner's defense before signing the requisition papers, and that an affidavit would be presented him showing that the man in Seattle, whose name Gardiner is charged with having forged, acknowledged the alleged forged signature to be genuine.
